Our brand uniquely understands and identifies with a growing segment of consumers who wish to create a more sustainable and beautiful world for their families and for the future. This educated, affluent, and family-oriented audience delights in the simple pleasures and creative challenges of cooking, home decorating, gardening, quilting, and other treasured homemade crafts. Whether in a farmhouse, townhouse, or condo, MaryJanesFarm's readers embrace the modern farmgirl's way of life. MaryJanesFarm has become an essential, trusted resource for cutting-edge women who desire to make organic and more purposeful living a reality.

MARYJANE BUTTERS

Carpenter, waitress, janitor, upholsterer, secretary, ranch hand, milkmaid, wilderness ranger, environmental activist, entrepreneur, author, and trendsetter, MaryJane Butters has worn many hats (and aprons) in her day, but none more proudly than that of modern-day farmgirl. She shares the message of simple organic living with readers of her magazine, now in its 24th year; and her eight books. She's also the founder of the Farmgirl Sisterhood, an organization with 8,500 dues-paying members over time who've earned more than 14,500 merit badges (think Girl Scouts for grown-ups).

From her farm in Moscow, Idaho, she sells over 60 different organic prepared foods, produces the magazine, and runs a B&B (bed & bath). In addition, she's the creator of Project F.A.R.M. (First-class American Rural Made), an organization that employs rural women who sew totes, quilts, dolls, and more. She also designs a line of bedding and home décor sold in department stores and shops all over the country.

PURE, SIMPLE, GENUINE

OUR READERS—who span cities, suburbs, and rural areas across the country—understand the importance of buying organic food, clothing, and other products and are highly responsive to our advertisers' messages.
